▲ MONTBLANC DAYS OF GREY

The brilliant colours of midsummer are drawing to a close, our wardrobes are filled with a new elegance, as are our accessories. With the sensual grey tones of "Caviar / Sky Grey" of the current "La Vie de Bohème" seasonal combination, Montblanc reflects perfectly the fashionable tone in the fine leather collection.

▼ FACET FIRE PRETTY IN PINK

It is the admiration for a woman of passion that stirred the creation of the Rosa Eldera collection. Dominated by a fiery splash of Pink Sapphires, this exclusive set lends a subtle bold touch to otherwise demure appearances. Finished with an ornate arrangement of Marquis and Round diamonds, this is all it takes to set hearts aflame.

◀ DE GEM STUNNING STONES

Stylish. Sexy. Extravagant. Welcome to the world of DeGem's La Roche Collection, a selection of the most gorgeous hues of coloured precious stones set in impressive designs.

Inspired by the raw tones and textures of Mother Nature, the upmarket jeweler presents this extraordinary array of colours, combining it with a contemporary, upper-class edge.

▼ KATE SPADE ALL COLOURED

Known for its exuberant style and playful wit, Kate Spade's passion for colour sets the tone for each collection. The Jewellery line is just one of the accessories available at the flagship boutique at the The Gardens, Mid Valley City.

◀ CHRISTIAN DIOR COUTURE PURPLE RAIN

The Dior Cruise Collection 2009 sees lounging shapes, glossy silks and bold clashing prints as the new level of luxury that causes temperatures to rise. From sunrise to sunset, Dior is having a heat wave in luxury and style. This bright purple heels, adorned with dangly gold, blue and green beads, is a prime example.

◀ JIMMY CHOO QUITE A CRUISE

The Cruise 2009 collection is as thrilling as it is glamorous, with designs encapsulating a decadent, spirited sense of luxury. Slender clean lined heels, vibrant coloured leathers, innovative embellishments and iridescent materials make the cruise collection.

▶ BOTTEGA VENETA EFFORTLESS CHIC

Bottega Veneta's Cruise Collection is designed less for a season than for a state of mind. The goal is a global wardrobe that looks right in any climate, in the city or at the sea, from early in the morning until late at night, perfect for a woman who wants to dress without effort in pieces that feel like a holiday.

▶ VALENTINO BEAUTIFUL NUDES

Nude is the elusive hue that embodies the starting point of every piece of haute couture. Using a reference of mannequins and uniqueness, together with strokes of raven black, the Autumn/Winter 08/09 accessories collection revisits the classic black and white of Valentino history.

▼ LONGCHAMP UPDATED VINTAGE

The LM collection of bags, developed by Philippe Cassegrain in the early 70's, is being reprised by Longchamp for its 60th anniversary, with two updated versions: the LM Vintage Moka, an exact reproduction of the original line (also available in black), and the LM Verni line, a stylish look in keeping with the current fashion trends.

▶ MULBERRY ROUND THE MULBERRY BUSH

Mulberry bursts into bloom with vibrant colours this spring. The palette for its range of bags is brought to life through a wide selection of materials lending a depth and a layer to the colours. Vintage orange squash and papal purple against a stage of classic neutrals plus a shot of exotic jade are all present for the new season's totes
