LA LUNA

Soleluna (Italian for day and night) Dusk & Dawn is the new urban collection from DeGem. Dusk highlights deep earthy tones of smoky quartz against delicate pavé diamonds while Dawn plays with sparkling brights of sunny lemon quartz and champagne pavé diamonds.

A SPADE'S A SPADE

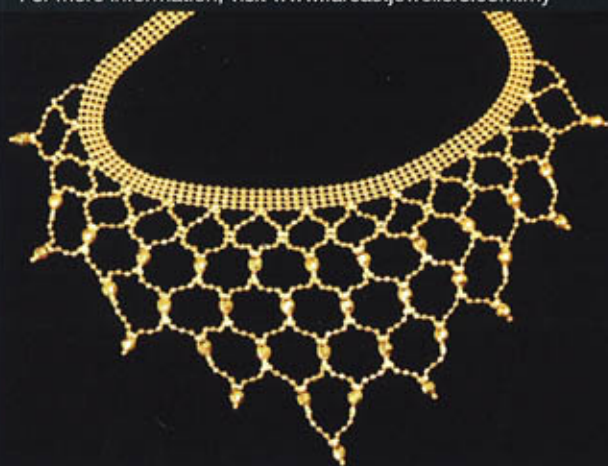

Kate Spade's arrival into Kuala Lumpur also marks the arrival of their whimsical jewellery collection. Expect fun yet elegant baubles that employ the use of faux pearls and enamel to complement their much-loved accessories.

FAR EAST

Far East Jewellers can now be found in Sungei Wang Plaza. The 32-year-old jeweller offers a varied selection of precious ready-to-wear pieces as well as customisable pieces for the more discerning.

TINY TEMPLES

These darling little pagoda earrings from Bottega Veneta pack a wallop in the fine jewellery department. Comprising dainty pavé diamonds in your choice of rose or yellow gold, it makes for a charming addition to your treasure chest.

BLACK CLOVER

The Alhambra range from Van Cleef & Arpels takes on a mysterious new persona with the introduction of onyx into its usual adorable clover-like design. A closer inspection reveals a tiny little timepiece in its midst.

STACK 'EM UP

Tiffany & Co. advocates piling on the bangles and here's how they're doing it.

First, pop on a dainty band comprising a single row of glittering diamonds. Throw on the 18k gold Tiffany Metro with its unmistakable Atlas Roman Numerals. And for that final touch, Jean Schlumberger's simple gold and enamel, flexible mesh and sterling silver ones.

KNOT WHAT YOU THINK

At a glance, the tiny little stubs on the Rugiada necklace by Stefan Hafner appear to be 'knots' woven together. Upon closer inspection, each knot is itself a glittering diamond. The flexible structure allows it to adjust itself intimately against the décolletage of the wearer.

A PRECIOUS MELODY

Montblanc's Hymne à l'amour collection of jewellery is dedicated to the unforgotten hymn to love by songstress Edith Piaf. The Haute Joaillerie collection features close-set black spinel stones in a band of sparkling diamonds and 18k white gold.

DEWY EYED

Part of the Dewy Eye collection from Mikimoto is this charming set of 'knitted' Akoya pearls jewellery comprising necklace and earrings. The touch of brilliance comes courtesy of diamond droplets and 18k white gold.

CIRCLE OF GOLD

For those who like their bling on the OTT side, indulge in the latest range of Habib gold bracelets. A closer inspection reveals intricate details that add that much-needed touch of glamour.

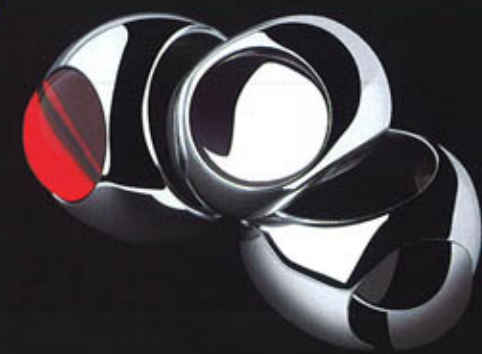

BIG BOUQUETS

The stunning Bouquet necklace from the Montblanc Haute Joaillerie collection deserves a mention. Its smooth diamond strap of 24.07 carats topped off with a six carat star-shaped Montblanc diamond is best complimented by fiery two-carat earrings.

FINE VERSACE

Versace collaborates with artists Julian Schnabel and Wangechi Mutu to create two unique jewellery pieces. Produced by Versace, these pieces were auctioned live at the recent Whitney Museum Of American Art gala. This also kick-starts Versace's new Fine Jewellery collection.

JUST LIKE JELLY

The René Lalique Cabochon ring was first seen in 1931. However, the pure simple design has lasted through many years and is still as au courant as it was then.
